Dutch Junior U-15 Open 2015

At Amsterdam, Netherland (12/7/2015)

Tushar Shahani wins U-15 and Navmi Sharma is runners up in Dutch Junior Open squash

Tushar Sahani

After making an impact in the Pioneer Cup junior event earlier in Germany, two Indian players made decisive gains in Netherlands. Tushar Shahani in the boys' section and Navmi Sharma in the girls, both U-15 players, did themselves proud by reaching the title round in the Dutch Junior Open squash event.

Tushar went on to win the boy's title beating an English player Oscar Beach in the final and give Indian squash image a fresh boost in Europe.

On the other hand, Navmi Sharma had to settle for a runner up spot. Seeded two, Navmi went down to the top seed Marina Stefanoni in 3 straight games.

Navmi Sharma

Final Results

Boys U-15 : Tushar Sahani beat Oscar Beach (Eng) 9-11, 11-7, 11-2, 11-2

63rd Senior National Championship 2015

Saurav, Joshana, Parthiban, Saurabh Nayar, Rishad, Sanjay Rajpal, Jaideep and Arun Rabindranath are winners in Nationals

At Kerela, India : 12th July 2015

It proved to be so near, yet so far for reigning champion Harinder Pal Sandhu as he went down fighting to his senior and far experienced Saurav Ghosal in five thrilling games in the men's final of the SBT-63rd Senior National Squash Championship.

Two games up and again 6-2 up in the fourth game, Harinder seemed to have got into the groove for another tilt at the title, but the wily Ghosal is a different player under pressure. He proved it with an outstanding fight back and lunging ahead in the decisive final game. Ghosal thus helped himself to his tenth national title.

The women's final too was well contested though the scoreline would not suggest that. Joshna Chinappa showed experience mattered in the final analysis while dousing the enthusiasm and challenge of national junior champion Harshit Kaur Jawanda. This was Joshna's 14th national title as she is well on way to reach that magical number of 16, which is the number of titles that Bhuvaneswari Kumari had won for a record total.
