Vikram Malhotra claims his third PSA title at Charlotte : 1st May 2016

Vikram Malhotra

USA-based Mumbai squash player Vikram Malhotra continues to impress as he clinched the PSA $5,000 Charlotte Open 2016 at the North Carolina city in the USA. The 26-year-old, seeded second, upset the top seed Lewis Walters of Jamaica, 11-8, 8-11, 11-7, 11-6 in the final that lasted 60 minutes.

This is Malhotra's third career PSA title and the second on the trot. The Hartford resident won his maiden PSA title at the Florida State Open in December as a qualifier. Since then, he has reached at least the semi-finals of every tournament that he has entered, winning the title at the Malaysian Tour Leg 1 and finishing as runner-up at the Seattle Open.

That success has helped him to break into the top 100 of the world rankings and he is currently perched at 92nd.
