Chotrani, Subedar, Anvekar, Uberoi make it Jai Maharashtra at Chennai

WINNERS ALL

The Winners of the Nationals played at Chennai
Mekhala Subedar (Women), Manish Chotrani (Men),
Bikram Uberoi (Boys U-19) & Deepali Anvekar (Girls U-19)

Mumbai may have been deprived of staging the first big squash event of the millennium, the Indian Open, but their players made amends by bringing home the four titles that count at the India Cements National Squash in Chennai. Manish Chotrani topped the top seed Delhi's Ritwik Bhattacharya with a display that connoisseurs found innovative, incisive and immaculate, which the scoreline of 9-4, 9-1, 9-5 may not indicate. Manish had not beaten the India junior international before, having lost to him in the State Open final in Mumbai. He then had the humiliation of being scratched from the Western India for turning up late. Chotrani has been the bridesmaid to Akhil Behl in the Mumbai events in recent years and Behl's going to the U.S. left the door open for winning the elusive title. It had to come this year for in years to come the fast-maturing juniors would be physically far tougher to handle for the 28-year-old Manish. The first game set the trend for the final. Ritwik made early mistakes and Manish made him pay for them with a relentless attack without sacrificing accuracy. In the last two games, Manish came through as composed, consistent and crafty. The final may have turned on its head in the third game as Ritwik turned a 1-4 deficit into a 5-4 lead. But Manish forced his rival into errors both up front and at the back and the Gen. Rajendrasinhji Commander-in-Chief trophy was back where it belonged, Mumbai, which has had more titles than the other states put together. The women gave another display of power squash that augurs well for their future. Mekhala Subedar of Devlali appears to be dominating the sport in the manner of 'Candy' Bhuvaneshwari Kumari. But both Mekhala and the other finalist, Deepali Anvekar are faster about court than Bhuvaneshwari. Deepali had taken a game off her rival at the Western India. But as at the CCI, so at the MCC courts, her unwitting obstructions came in the way of a tighter final which may have lasted longer than the 36 minutes it did. It was a hat-trick of triumphs for Mekhala. Deepali had a consolation in winning the under-19 title beating Vaidehi Reddy on her home courts. For Bikram Uberoi this tournament will mark a watershed. He put to use his training at Rhode Island in his gruelling encounters against Services stalwarts Rajdeep Brar and Anuj Kalia. He scalped fifth seed Brar in the pre-quarters and fourth-seed Kalia in the quarters. In the semi-finals he even took a game off Ritwik who was forced to revert to a safe, error-free game thereafter to make the final. After such a grand show winning the under-19 title was a piece of cake for Uberoi. He beat Mihir Kapoor in the final. The hero of Maharashtra's inter-state campaign where they lost to Services in the final, Kapoor couldn't make an impression in the second and third games. While they won the big four titles, Mumbai were left ruminating on the three that got away. Tamil Nadu's Rajiv Reddy, a recent India coach, stopped the Mumbai sweep, beating B.I. Singh of Delhi in the over-45 final. As did Rajdeep Brar beating Vaman Apte in the over-35 final and U.P.'s Dalip Tripathi in the professionals final beating the popular Otters pro Santosh More. Two Maharashtra players didn't win anything but there is promise of doing so in the near future. Anshul Manchanda, son of the national champion Raj, extended Gajendra Singh Rathore in the second round match before the Rajasthan player won 3-9, 9-4, 9-4, 9-7. And in the girls under-19 Priyanka Yadav was third time lucky beating Supriya Balsekar to whom she had lost narrowly twice last year.

A Unique Barter

It's a unique barter conceived by the Khalid Ansari, the dynamic president of the Squash Rackets Association of Maharashtra. Under the system promoted by Petra Foundation, Kuala Lumpur and Mid-Day, Malaysia's young cricketers will train at the Elf-Vengsarkar Cricket Academy and play matches in Mumbai. In return, the city's junior squash players will be hosted by the Persutan Squash Malaysia to train under their qualified coaches.

The 15-member Malaysian cricket team came in December and won a few matches. HRH Tunku Imran of Malaysia (President Emeritus of World Squash Federation) came with the team and got VIP treatment in the city. He is no doubt a visionary dreaming of Malaysia being part of cricket's mainstream in 20 years' time. Their success in squash has been more phenomenal having their juniors having conquered the world. The city's junior squash players can look forward to training under reputed coach K.H. Ong at the Lakeside Club in Subang Jaya May-June 2000.

HRH Tunku Imran (President Emeritus of World Squash Federation) with prize winners of the AirIndia - SRAM Junior Tournament (3rd leg) at CCI

Coaches have come and gone in the Mecca of Indian squash, Mumbai, but no one has left such a lasting impression than Abdul Shaikh, the badminton-cum-squash coach from Vancouver. His methods were easily understood by one and all. The city's professionals were high on confidence after a 10-day extensive programme under Shaikh and were awarded the Level I certificate of coaching. Shaikh had flown down specially for the purpose. The programme, organised jointly by the Squash Racquets Association of Maharashtra (SRAM) and the Indian Squash Professional (ISP) and sponsored by Air-India, was conducted at the Otters Club and the Cricket Club of India. The professionals who successfully completed the Level I programme include: Chandrakant Pawar (The Leela), Santosh More (Otters Club), Anant More (CCI), Gopi Mohite (Bombay Gymkhana), Prakash Yelve (Willingdon Sports Club), Rajesh Sonawane (Willingdon Catholic Gymkhana), Riaz Mohammed (Juhu Centaur), Vijay N Sonawane (Andheri Recreation Centre), Yakub Shaikh (The Club), Sunil Verma (Jindals/Vashind), Ramesh More (Bombay Gymkhana), Balakrishna Ligam and Uttam Patkar (Willingdon Sports Club), Vijay Sonawane (Otters Club), Sandeep Parab (Catholic Gymkhana), Ijaz Mohammed (The Club). Prominent among the senior and junior players who attended the programme were Neeraj Shirgaonkar, Aditya Manjrekar, Supreet Singh, Karan Bhatti, Karan Pal Sethi, Priyanka Yadav and Rahil Shah.

ISP WEBSITE GETS THICKER

We are proud to announce the launching of an even more comprehensive website than our initial one. It's called the www.ispsquash.com. The inauguration was done by Additional Commissioner of Police (Traffic) Mr S.P.S. Yadav. The site which contains 347 main pages and 199 photographs, is a virtual encyclopedia of Indian squash will be updated every week. Among the features of the site are information on world federations, a census of squash courts in India, addresses and telephone numbers of over a thousand squash players in India, upcoming world tournaments, national winners, tips for beginners, squash drills, draws and seeding of tournaments and world squash news. A labour of love of ISP's founder and visionary Mahendra Agarwal, one hopes squash fans will not only visit the site but interact and make it a lively one. So what if India lags behind in the world ladder of squash at least it is not lagging behind in the information side of the sport with the ISP site throwing the gauntlet down for others to pick up and further enrich the sport in the new millennium.

Mr. S.P.S. YADAV (Additional Commissioner of Police, Traffic, Mumbai) inaugurating the INDIAN SQUASH PROFESSIONAL Website. His daughter Priyanka Yadav, ISP Directors Mahendra Agarwal & Chandrakant Pawar look on.

WISPA LAUNCHES SIMPLY SENSATIONAL SQUASH

The Women's International Squash Players' Association (WISPA) launched a colourful celebration of international women's squash, past, present and future, at the Women's World Open Championships in Seattle, USA, on October 24, 1999. Simply Sensational Squash, an official WISPA publication, is edited by noted Indian journalist Raju Chainani, editor of 'Simply Squash'. With contributions from the sport's leading international journalists and legendary players such as Australia's Geoff Hunt, Simply Sensational Squash covers the development of the WISPA World Tour, the stars over the years, and includes reports from all the continents. The new publication is available from WISPA at $10 (US) or £6.50 (pounds sterling), plus postage and packing.

To order contact WISPA at: 27 Westminster Palace Gardens, Artillery Row, London SW1P 1RR, England; or fax: (44) 207-976 8778; or email: wispahq@aol.com

Brar makes it five in a row

The XXXIX Services Squash Championships were held during October at the state-of-the-art Western Naval Command glass-back Squash Courts located in the beautiful seaside IMSC Complex at Mumbai. For the first time in as many years Maj Rajdeep Brar won the title. Brar, a paratrooper from the Army Ordnance Corps, quelled the spirited challenge from Capt Navneet Narain and Capt Anuj Kalia, both from the Armoured Corps. In a riveting five-setter, Brar beat Narain to claim the Field Marshall Sir Birdwood Trophy. He also anchored the Army Red team victory in the team event. The following Services team was selected for the national circuit: Maj. Rajdeep Brar (captain), Capt. N. Narain, Capt. A. Kalia, Capt. A.S. Chonkar, Capt. R. Teofia, Capt. M. Khurana, Capt. S. Rajamani, Lt. P. Singh, Lt. V. Mahinder (Potential), Lt. Col. L.K. Agnihotri (manager).

Results:

Open semis: Maj. Brar bt Capt. Chonkar 3-1; Capt. Narain bt Capt. Kalia 3-2.

Final: Maj. Brar bt Capt. Narain 3-2.

Team Positions: 1. Army Red 2. Army Green 3. Navy-Air Force

Wispa Open 99 (Chennai)

Women's International Squash Players Association (WISPA) Open Championship sponsored by India Cements was held at newly constructed international class Rainbow courts at the Madras Race Club, Chennai from November 29 to December 2.

This is the first time that an international tournament of WISPA is being held in this country. In the finals a contest which turned out to be a one-sided contest after the second game, Australia's World No.16

Rachael Grinham upset favourite and the World Top-seeded South African, World no. 10 Claire Nitche 9-6,0-9,9-5,9-7 to win the $5000 India Cements sponsored Women's International Squash Players Association (WISPA) championship.

Joshna bags a double, Alisha wins U-11 title

Indian juniors did exceedingly well in the Sri Lanka Open junior squash tournament held at the Sugathadasa Squash Complex, Colombo from October 16 to 19. The juniors won four titles. Petite Alisha Mashruwala claimed the girls under-11 crown with a 9-0,9-0,9-1 drubbing of Tamani Jayawardena. She also reached the under-13 final before going down to Sally Loo. Joshna Chinappa bagged a creditable double. She won the girls under-15 and 17 titles beating Malaysia's Lim Yoke Wah in both finals. Mumbai's Nishad Lalwani bagged the boys under-11 title by beating compatriot Jay Bhagat 9-7,9-6,9-1 in the men's final. However Mumbai had Gautam Kalani went down to Malaysia's Kapil Nesan 2-9,7-9,9-7,0-9 in the boys under-13 semi-finals, and went on to finish third.

Joshna wins in Scottish Open : Joshna Chinappa won Scottish Junior girls squash title defeating Kirtsy McPhee of England 10-9,9-7,7-9, 10-8. Joshna Chinappa had won the under-13 Scottish junior title last year.
